

Thank you to the many people who are helping build Project Help.

THANKS go out to:

- ◆ Chuck Sheets for the generous donation of the land
- ◆ Fred Beck for the legal work on the land donation
- ◆ Jerry Kohart of Coldwell Banker, Roth, Wehrly, Graber Realtors, for helping us in the very early stages of looking for land and buildings
- ◆ The Solomon Group (Fred Morgan) for the web page
- ◆ Michelle, Pastor Norm's secretary, for the countless hours of refining the publicity
- ◆ Miller's Tax Service, Hamilton, for office supplies
- ◆ Tel-All Productions for the videos. Thank you, Trent.
- ◆ Kim Frye at Time Temporary Services for donating their commercial time on Channel 20 cable TV to Project Help.
- ◆ Rick Getts for his help in the early stages and for getting the sign for us.
- ◆ The people at Steuben County Community Foundation, Dekko Foundation, Lutheran Foundation, and the Cole Foundation who have helped us refine the project and expand it.
- ◆ The many people who have given $25 - and more - to the $25 Challenge.
- ◆ The many people who are telling their friends about the project.
- ◆ Jonas Steury, who is watching all this unfold from heaven. He was the one who led us to our architect. Jonas was killed just two weeks later.
- ◆ Everyone who has linked Project Help's website to their own.
- ◆ FMC congregation and staff who have heard Norm's stories about the project many times and have still remained encouraging.
- ◆ Volunteers who have put together the publicity packets
- ◆ Aaron and Leroy Steury for the phenomenal bid on the building. You have "cashed in" every good-will dollar you and your dad had throughout the community.
- ◆ Everyone who has said yes to helping build the building at your cost or no cost.
- ◆ Mike Bock and Ken Wilson for "sharpening my pencil" and helping me refine the project
- ◆ Kelly Trusty for the grant writing. You are here for "such a time as this"
- ◆ Liz for all the businesses you contacted
- ◆ Churches, clubs, organizations, factories, etc who have responded so generously to the $25 challenge
- ◆ Victoria Derrer for writing all the thank you notes
- ◆ Don Bohn for putting up the new sign at the new ministry location.
- ◆ Mayor Dick Hickman for giving us mention in the letter to everyone in Angola.
- ◆ Those who have talked to significant donors (you know who you are)
- ◆ Harger's Meats for the "Buck for a Brat" day.
- ◆ First Federal Savings Bank of Angola for the $50,000 gift. You have set the pace for others to follow.
- ◆ The contractors who have stepped up to say we will do this or that, just tell us what you need. There are too many to mention at this time and I don't know all of the details, but you guys do. Thanks a lot. Buildings like this are built because of your generosity.
- ◆ The person who gave the first $2,000 donation to the endowment fund.
- ◆ The person who gave the very first check. It was large and it was a confirmation this project will succeed.

- ◆ WLKI FM radio for taking us on as your special project for November, 2007. It has been fun working with Andy and Danny on the live remotes. You gave us a boost we could never have gotten otherwise.
- ◆ Great American Mercantile in Orland, Bull Pen Cafe' in Fremont, Hamilton Village Foods in Hamilton, and Trine University, Angola, for hosting the live remotes. All of you made us feel so at home.
- ◆ Everyone who stopped by the live remotes with WLKI. You made our mornings!
- ◆ Elkhart (Indiana) Salvation Army for being a part of the live broadcast in Orland.
- ◆ Wal-Mart for the donuts we had at the live broadcast.
- ◆ Panache Salon for $25 from each employee family.
- ◆ Clear Lake Lion's Club for $25 for each member.
- ◆ Each of the banks in town that have opened up special accounts for people to give to Project Help easily - Farmer's State, First Federal, Campbell and Fetter, Star Financial, Flag Star, and Wells Fargo
- ◆ Wells Fargo Bank, Angola, for their significant gift.
- ◆ Steuben County Community Foundation for granting us the largest gift they have given any project in their 15 year history.
- ◆ Everyone who bought pies at the WLKI auction.
- ◆ The guys at INDOT, Fort Wayne, for doing the extra work so the ditch in front of the new building can be filled in.
- ◆ Tom Green for the extra engineering work.
- ◆ The Lutheran Foundation for their very generous gift of $109,130.
- ◆ The Kelly family and Glendarin Hills Golf Course for the lot to sell.
- ◆ The Cole Foundation for their gift of $25,000.
- ◆ There are many contractors and suppliers that have stepped up at this time for just about everything to do with the building. You have donated free labor and free materials or given us materials at your cost. You have worked directly with our contractor and we do not even know who some of you are. A HUGE THANK YOU to all of you!
- ◆ All the people at PayServ Systems for "PayServ Swings for Project Help." Your enthusiasm and hard work made this event one of the best fundraisers of the summer.
- ◆ All the people who donated plants and materials and helped put in the rain gardens at the new Project Help Community Building. A special thank you to the Trine University students who helped.
- ◆ All the volunteer painters who painted the walls and ceilings. Very nice job!
- ◆ All the people who cleaned up everything inside the buildings after the workers were there.
- ◆ The flooring guys who worked nights and weekends to put the flooring down.
- ◆ Sanborns for Your Home for the flooring. It is sharp.
- ◆ The people who helped move some things into the new building already.
- ◆ The anonymous donors who supplied all the appliances for the kitchen.
- ◆ Shoup's Duraclean for cleaning and sealing the cement floors.
- ◆ Everyone who brought in the clothes for the initial fill up of the retail store. You are great!
- ◆ The people who set up the store. We could not do it without great volunteers.
- ◆ Cintas for all the mats, soap dispensers, etc.
- ◆ The people who helped move Project Help to their new location.
